

Predator - How to Re-Setup Predator Environment

Use this how-to guide to re-setup DEV/SIT/UAT environment

Step-by-step guide

Option 1: Setup another new environment

1. generate full system export
 - a. Login to predator
 - b. go to definitions > System Export
2. Execute the online.sql script that was release with the latest package with a different DB Name
3. Import the system export
 - a. Login to predator
 - b. go to definition > system Import

Option 2: Remove current environment and setup a new database

1. generate full system export
 - a. Login to predator
 - b. go to definitions > System Export
2. Delete/backup the current Database
3. Execute the online.sql script that was release with the latest package
4. Import the system export
 - a. Login to predator
 - b. go to definition > system Import

Related articles

- How to turn on error validation for Predator Web Services
- Feeder Type Value in Predator Database
- How to Turn on DB Profiler for Troubleshooting
- How to Import data into Adverse List
- How to Re-Setup Predator Environment